HORRIBLE DEVELOPMENTS .- The fate of Miss Sarah Furber, the factory girl of Manchester, N. H., has been ascertained. It appears that she was a victim of seduction. She afterwards was under treatment by the father of her seducer, Dr. McNabb, of Manchester, and died in consequence. The body was then placed in a box while warm, and brought to this city by the Doctor himself and sold to a physician with an assurance that all was ight. When the body was taken to a dissecting room, it was ascertained by the Surgeon, from the appearance of the body, that there was foul play in the matter, and he ordered Dr. McNabb to take it away immediately,— The Doctor then went to the porter of the bospital and offered him five dollars to dispose f the body, and suggested the expediency of sent, but embalmed the body and informed the Police. Dr. McNalds, his son, and a portrait painter, named Ingalls, have been arrested as implicated in the affair. The body was packed in a box two and a half feet square and was sold for 87. The porter was now in his possession the 85 bill poid to him by Dr. McNabb.—Faston Tenerller.
